He is now staying at Hastings, where he will remain during the winter unless the weather becomes so severe as to compel him to go to Egypt.

LONDON, November 18.—A meeting was held today to form a "Law and Liberty league." Jacob Bright addressed the magistrates of condoning the misconduct of the police. Mr. Stead denounced the brutality of the police and charged them with maltreating the prisoners taken last Sunday, both during a row and after they were taken to the station. A motion to form a league was offered by Saunders, who condemned the government as responsible for the whole affair. Socialist Hyndham seconded the motion, which was adopted.

Continuation of the appropriation for special mail facilities on fast lines to the south and west is recommended. The total amount of estimates submitted to meet the requirements of the office of the second assistant postmaster general for the fiscal year 1888-89 is $31,035,065.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Coming of New Railroads to the City Discussed.

Nothing Known of the Plans of the Rock Island.

The Santa Fe to Build a Round House.

Prospect of Improvement of the Road to Manitou.

The meeting of the board of trade called for last night was held in the council room. The attendance was not very large, although thirty were present. A few very important subjects to be discussed.

President Dorr occupied the chair and a number of other officers were present.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting Mr. Lowber, of the board of directors, reported that $200 had been expended in entertaining the National Editorial excursion. This was a few dollars less than had been appropriated.

Dr. Bartlett, of the printing committee, reported that the new pamphlet to be issued would be ready about the first of January in order to secure some business cards of business blocks that were being made, that Mrs. Dunbar was at present at work on the descriptive portion.

He also stated that the committee recommended that the paper on the climate of Colorado by Dr. Wagner of New York, and recently published in the Gazette, be printed in circular or pamphlet form, for the distribution as a companion piece to the French letter.

In addition he stated that an advertisement had been placed in a number of well known eastern papers through the Rowell newspaper agency, and that as a result a number of communications had been received asking for information in regard to the city.

Mr. Ehrich spoke at some length of the merits and high medical reputation of Dr. Wagner and believed that the distribution of his paper would be of great benefit. He moved that the advertising committee be instructed to have 50,000 of them printed.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Berrey thought that none of the Dutch letters should be printed as they were only a waste of time and money.

Mr. Lowber suggested that the Dutch letters should be printed as they would be of great benefit in securing foreign trade.

Mr. Berrey, of the railroad committee, reported that the committee was to interview President Cable, of the Rock Island road, who will be in the city today, and would place the advantages of the city before him as a western terminus of his road on the best light possible.

He also stated that the committee had communicated with the vice president and chief engineer of the Santa Fe in regard to the location of the shops which the company proposed to build in Colorado, but that they had nothing satisfactory to report.

Information was asked regarding the truth of the report that the Santa Fe intended building a round house in Colorado Springs. City Clerk McCreery stated in this connection that the company had arranged with the city water works to supply water for a round house that would have stalls to accommodate ten engines.

Mr. Hayes, a stockholder of the street railway company, stated to the board that at the receipts of the company such as had commenced operations were far beyond what had been anticipated that the smallest number of persons that had ridden on the road in one day was 450, and the largest number 900. He stated that the opinion was pretty general that a line of cars was needed between the city and Colorado City, but that the members of the company had expended all the money they felt they could afford to without an immediate return, and that if the road was built it would have to be by the contribution of the business men of the city who would be most benefited. He stated that books for subscription to stock would be opened next week.

Mr. Berrey presented some quite lengthy resolutions in favor of the project and recommending liberal subscriptions which were unanimously adopted.

Mr. Ehrich spoke of the Catholic college which was to have been erected at this end of the city, the subscriptions which he had been asked to take for the project. He moved that the persons who had subscribed be asked to pay the money to the board of trade. The motion was carried.

Mr. Gordy of the Republican stated that he had sent out over a hundred copies of his paper during the past six months to persons asking information in regard to business.

Mr. Hayes thought that a business pamphlet should be issued.

Mr. Hayes thought that a portion of the new pamphlet should be devoted to the business of the city and its needs.

The matter was referred to the printing committee.

Mr. Ehrich wanted to know if any one present was familiar with the views of County Commissioner elect Plumb in regard to the improvement of the Manitou road.

No one was able to speak authoritatively, although Mr. Berrey gave it as his opinion that Mr. Plumb was in favor of improvement.

Mr. Ehrich suggested that the board of trade appoint a committee to wait upon Mr. Plumb and ascertain his views in regard to the Manitou road.

Mr. Ehrich's motion was carried, and Messrs. Ehrich, Berrey and Hayes were appointed as the committee.

On motion the board then adjourned.

Shortening the Time.

NEW YORK, November 18.—On Sunday next the New York Central railroad will adopt a new time table, a feature of which is to reduce the fast time record between Albany and New York. The night express for several years past has made 9:15 p. m. On and after the 20th inst. a train will leave at that hour and reach Chicago at the same hour the next day, thereby shortening the running time two hours and fifteen minutes.

Veterans' Votes.

MINNEAPOLIS, November 18.—Nearly complete returns of the G. A. R. vote on the proposed department headquarters bill have been received at the office of A. R. headquarters in this city. The vote is practically unanimous in favor of the bill. The general opinion committee, Gurnea, George S. Merrill of Lawrence, Mass. chairman, will compile the returns and present them to congress.

Cattle Disease.

FORT WORTH, November 18.—News was received here today to the effect that Indians are burning the Oklahoma country. No cause is assigned for the alleged outbreak. The supposition is there is an uprising against the "Boomers."

Gladstone's Opinion.

LIVERPOOL, November 18.—Mr. Gladstone in a letter says that the Mitchelstown shooting and the arrest of Mr. Wilfred Blunt had a connection with the crimes clauses under the coercion act, and therefore the proclamation was illegal.

THE ANARCHISTS.

Johann Most Released on Bail in Small Amount.

Advance Sheets of Anarchist Parsons' Book Issued.

General Suspension of Steel Rail Manufacture Announced.

...of the Unsatisfactory Condition of the Market.

Johann Most Bailed.

NEW YORK, November 18.—Johann Most has been released on $15,000 bail. When Most was arrested with Parsons the room was searched with search warrants issued by Justice Duffy. A woman named Hoff, an anarchist who said she was the wife of Lingg, but subsequently said she was not, refused to give bail for Most. She stated that although she and her husband had taken no active part in the socialistic meetings they were both in hearty sympathy with them. She was accepted and ...

Parsons' Book.

CHICAGO, November 18.—Advance sheets of Albert Parsons' book entitled "Anarchism: Its Philosophy and Scientific Basis," written in person previous to his execution for treason at Jefferson City, Missouri, were received here this evening. The book of the work is remarkable for the authority the first one, almost to the extent that the constitution of the United States is a component, the loss of which was the question. "What is property, whether you give food and clothes to a slave or not, or whether you give him enough in wages to purchase the same."

Crisis in the Rail Industry.

PITTSBURG, November 18.—The twelve leading manufacturers of the country announce that they have decided to ask a general suspension of work in their industry. When is not stated, but the first day of December is the expected time. The twelve manufacturers are conferring together here and give as their reason for asking for the unsatisfactory condition of the rail market. Many contracts are expiring and new ones are being held back in the hope of lower prices. Others are waiting to place contracts but the terms are entirely unsatisfactory. The manufacturers say that prices cannot be reduced owing to the high wages and the rates demanded for ore.

The ... will throw an immense number of men out of employment, not only in the mills but in the coke regions of this section. It is estimated that fully ten per cent of the coke output will be thrown on the market, and this will not only reduce ... a shut down of a large proportion of the ovens and consequently reduce the number of workmen. The fact of a reduction of wages in the works at Troy is taken as an indication that ... will be lower next year.

Strike in the Mines.

DENVER, November 18.—A number of miners who arrived in the city today from Leadville bring news of a new strike in the "Matchless" at Leadville. The ore assays over $300 per ton and nearly two millions in sight. The property is owned by ex-Senator Tabor.

Secretary Whitney's Health.

WASHINGTON, November 18.—Mrs. Whitney returned to Washington this afternoon. She said the secretary was much improved in health and would come back to Washington next week. He is still unable to do any work however and it will be some time before he assumes full charge of the department.

TELEGRAPH BREVITIES.

The king of Denmark has started for Vienna.

John J. Breslin, the well-known Irish patriot, died at New York yesterday of disease of the liver.

The Railway Passenger and Freight Conductors Mutual Aid and Benefit association began its thirteenth annual convention at Chicago yesterday, routine business being transacted.

Result Scores of Dickens.

Adolphus Prologue

Dickens was only 31 when I first saw him, being just two years my junior. I have said what he appeared to me then. As I knew him afterward, and to the end of his days, he was a strikingly manly man not only in appearance but in bearing. The boyish brightness of his eyes was very striking. And I do not think that I have ever seen in mortal those wonderful eyes which saw so much and so keenly ... ly though in very slight degree, to ... slightness. Very few persons, even among those who knew him well, were aware of this, for Dickens never spoke of it. But he mentally exercised his vision by looking at distant objects and making them out as well as he could without any artificial assistance. It was an instance of that force of will in him which compelled normally somewhat delicate frame to conquer itself like that of an athlete. Mr. Forster somewhere says of him: "Dickens's habits were robust, but his health was not." This is entirely just as far as my observation extends. Of the general calmness of his manner, despite of gayety and ideas to those who have not seen or known him. This was evidenced by many deep lines in his genius. He might have been the strongest writer he was and yet not have warped the social atmosphere and ... summer glow which seemed to attend ... Lingg ... ment. There was a peculiar humorous protest in it when recounting or hearing anything specially absurd, as who should say: "Pen my soul, this is too ridiculous." This pierces all boundaries and has some trait which as though the sense of the ridiculous ... over whelmed him like a tide. Which carried all hearers away with it, and which I well remember. His enthusiasm was boundless. It entered into everything he said or did. It belonged, doubtless to that amazing fertility and wealth of ideas and feeling that distinguished his genius.

The bail for Herr M[illocker] is reasonably small. He was inciting murder and ought to have had a bail in proportion to his offense. He is likely to jump this bail. He has no ambition to be a martyr.

The Denver World ceases to thrive under the new management. It now claims double the circulation of all the other evening papers combined. This is a pretty good record for five weeks under the new management.

Mr. O'Brien, whom the English government has seen fit to persecute for being loyal to his country, is not by any means a wild agitator. The night before he was confined in jail, he addressed some words of advice to his countrymen, which will rank with the best efforts of Grattan and O'C[onnell]. "Do nothing to mar the glorious work of Gladstone and Par[nell]. Take his advice, and shun outrage as you would shun p[oison]. But, on the other hand, as I have said if peaceful agitation for [illegible] is still [illegible] you are worth fighting for, boys. I tell you if we are to win an Irish [illegible] and win an [illegible] in the soil of Ireland this winter, it will not be by crying [illegible] to Gladstone. It will be [illegible] that [illegible] it will be by [illegible] and [illegible] to the world that the Irish people can hold aloft the [illegible] of our [illegible] the sneers of cowardice to scare it and the yokes of tyranny to conquer it."

Ex-Senator Hill is in the east. While passing through Chicago a Tribune reporter interviewed him as follows:

"Ex-Senator Hill of Colorado is at the P[almer]. He will leave was the favorite in his state till he was nominated [illegible] could be elected. The election of a Republican [illegible] had no significance [illegible] ferring personal [illegible]. The [illegible] was glad [illegible] ator Cockrell had declined his [illegible] to push the powerful [illegible] ich a fight, but the Western [illegible] by shouting the ballot & Chinese had created a [illegible] opposition and would fight the project hard. [illegible] at present [illegible] tions of course. On the subject of the tariff Senator Hill said he [illegible] not understand how the [illegible] of the advocates of reduced [illegible] would diminish the surplus, as claimed. To take the tariff off imported goods would lead to a g[illegible] sale of the same, and the revenue would continue to [illegible]. Such a high tariff should be [illegible] as would shut off the purchase of f[illegible] articles entirely."

Lord Derby pr[illegible]s that [illegible] or later the nations of Europe will repudiate their national debts. The interest on the debts now amounts to about eight hundred million dollars annually. The bonds of England and France have been considered the choicest of investments. If Lord Derby's opinion is worth much, they are not likely to be as much sought after hereafter. The bonds of the United States are now selling for [illegible] than those of any other civilized country in the world. There are two good reasons for this. One is that we have less debt per capita or in proportion to our national wealth than any nation in Europe. Another reason is that we show ourselves to be solvent by the rapid manner in which we are reducing the debt. It is not often that the creditor is inconvenienced by the rapidity with which a debt is paid. But in the case of the national debt, we have very seriously inconvenienced our creditors.

There is a growing tendency among the great manufacturing industries of the country to combine into "trusts" or pools which are sure to reward those interested in these industries with large and remunerative profit. The Chicago Tribune thus refers to the lately organized steel trust: "Entire success has attended the attempt to organize the steel producing industries of the United States into an association for mutual advantage and protection." Active efforts to organize this latest trust were begun only a month ago but a union has been formed of all manufacturers using the crucible process and an allied bureau will take charge of the B[illegible] and open-hearth manufacturers. The leading branches of steel manufacture will thus be brought into the same pool or "trust," and arrangements are so far completed that consumers [illegible] as work on an adjustment of prices," and will soon determine how far rates can be pushed up without provoking foreign competition. As the duties on steel manufactures range from 45 to 65 per cent the new combine has a wide margin for extortionate profit without incurring any risk of foreign competition. Protection from the outside by the tariff it is only necessary to organize a trust and suppress domestic competition in order to charge the helpless public up to the full limit. The Bessemer combination is in a peculiarly fortunate situation. GRACE CHURCH REED REST READING ROOM

(NORTH WEBER ST. AND PLATTE AVE.

Open daily, except on Sundays, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Free to everybody.

Mr. David Strachan of Manitou Park was in the city yesterday.

The Woman's Exchange will be permanently opened some time during the early part of next week.

There are unclaimed telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for Mrs Dr Mace, and R R Claybourne.

In the police magistrate's court yesterday a bum was fined $5 and costs amounting to $10.50 for assault and battery.

Rev. Richard Montague, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, preached the sermon at the ordination of Mr J R Walker in Denver last Tuesday evening.

Mr J H Bissell, manager of the "Natural Gas" company, called at the GAZETTE office yesterday. He left for Leadville on the early morning train over the Midland.

Mr E F Clark who has charge of all the eating stations along the End of the Midland, has closed the Orchard Cascade, where a stop of twenty minutes will be made by the trains for dinner.

In the district court yesterday afternoon a verdict by the jury in Minnie South plead guilty to an indictment charging her with keeping a disorderly house at Colorado City. She was fined $100 and costs, which she paid.

Yesterday the Chicago and Colorado Midland survey engineers were at work south of the city along the Denver and Rio Grande railroad track. It is supposed that the surveyors are endeavoring to ascertain the most favorable way of entering the city.

Workmen were busy last night decorating the Armory hall preparatory to the opening of Prof. or H C Durgin's dancing school today. Mr Durgin is meeting with good success and has at present forming five classes in this city.

Steps have been taken toward the formation of an active literary society in connection with the First Presbyterian church. All interested in such a society, whether members of the church or not, are invited to meet at the church next Monday evening at half past seven o'clock to adopt a constitution.

The funeral of the Hon Enoch Bentley took place from his late residence No. 928 El Paso street, yesterday afternoon. A large number of his personal friends and citizens of the city attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Wilson, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Carroll, Rev. Dr. Price and Rev. Dr. Parker. The pall bearers were Messrs. Judge Bowen, Judge Bruce, Judge Gillett, Judge Hallett, Judge Lindsley and Judge Richmond. The interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Dr. A. L. Jackson of this city informed us yesterday that the parcel of Winter belonging to Mason Cook of Leadville, lost out of a buggy on the road between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek, and reported in the GAZETTE of Wednesday, had been found by a man named Thompson, and returned to the owner.

The Law Enforcement League was organized last night at the office of Frank White, who was elected president. Colonel Wilson was one of the men who participated in the whitecapping affair at Cripple Creek last week, which resulted in the murder of Dan Harrington. The next meeting will be held next Friday night.

The Broadway Dairy is now supplied by the Overland Dairy Company, which has leased the dairy of W. S. Morris, and will have a full supply of milk from its own cows. The Overland Company has also leased the dairy of Mr. Morris in the State that such special attention to the wishes of the patrons of the dairy will be given by the new company as from Mr. Morris.

The Denver Republican speaking of "Natural Gas" said: A company made up of clever comedians and pretty girls succeeds admirably in entertaining the large audience which assembled at the Tabor last night to see what "Natural Gas" is like. The farce itself has no particular merit save in the smallness of the idea. It is the company, not the play that pleases. This is especially true of all the "skits" Gilbert, Doppley and Girard form a unique trio. Their respective merits are entirely subservient to the audience. Miss Hooker Booth is a bright, active little woman who sings well and dances gracefully. Miss Howe is a statuesque blonde with a rich contralto voice which lends well. Miss Ames, a remark ably clever actress, augments the work of the three stars, and makes the performance a thoroughly enjoyable one. The one drawback with which the audience wrestles in the performance is the lack of variety of success that could be obtained.

As previously announced the district conference of the Denver district Methodist Church, south, convened in the South Methodist church yesterday morning at nine o'clock. Bishop Duncan presided over the first session. Rev. F. M. Carroll, D. D. pastor of the church, and Rev. F. Parker, of Denver, were present. The morning session was spent in hearing the organization reports, the annual sales committees, collection of church and other publications. Annual Presiding Elders' reports were also heard. This afternoon the second session began with quite a number of the preachers present. This plan will soon have a full attendance and prove of the greatest benefit to the district.

The seating capacity of the room is not great, only a limited number of tickets have been sold. The doors will be opened at 8 o'clock and the entertainment will begin promptly at half past eight o'clock.

There was a largely attended special meeting of the Colorado Springs club yesterday afternoon. It was the unanimous sentiment of the meeting that the club could contribute greatly to the outdoor pleasures of our citizens, and it was unanimously resolved to vigorously prosecute the object for which the club was organized during the present season. The following new members were elected: Mr Frank White, Mr. Hall and Mr. C. E. Aiken. The initiation fee was placed at $5, with no annual dues. A trap meeting will be held on the grounds west of the Monument this afternoon at half past two o'clock. Non-members are cordially invited to be present.

The Denver Republican speaking of Davis' new play at the Tabor opera house, said: Last night the Tabor opera house was packed by the most fashionable audience that has been seen there this season, who flocked to see the first production of the play by Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis is the author of the play that bears his name, and the stock company was organized for the purpose of producing it. The play was received with much favor by the audience, and the author was called before the curtain at the close of the performance.

There are now forty-six miles of the city electric railway in operation, and the cars run to Mr. L. Rail. A switch has been ordered which will be put in on the southwest corner of Tejon and Bijou streets, for the Broadmoor line. This plan will soon have a full attendance and prove of the greatest benefit to the district.
